BIRD-LORE

A Bi-Monthly Magazine Devoted to the Study and Protection of Birds

Published for the National Committee of the Audubon Societies, as the official organ of the Societies.

Reduced line cut of Ernest Thompson Seton's painting of the Northern Shrike. Presented to every subscriber to Vol. VII, 1905 of Bird-Lore. The original is nearly life size.

Edited by - - FRANK M. CHAPMAN

Audubon Department edited by
MABEL OSGOOD WRIGHT and WILLIAM DUTCHER

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN BIRDS you will be interested in BIRD-LORE. Its pages are filled with descriptions of experiences with birds in field and forest from the pens of the writers who have won world wide fame as literary naturalists. The feature of the coming year will be a series of the plates by Bruce Horsfall and Louis Agassiz Fuertes accurately illustrating THE WARBLERS IN COLOR with figures of the male, female, and young (when their plumage differ) of every North American member of this fascinating family.
